Why Colombian Buyers Overpay for Drilling Rods (And How to Avoid It)

Colombia's mining sector grew 14% in 2023 (National Mining Agency data), creating a $220M demand for drill tools. But here's the problem: wholesale drilling rod prices vary wildly - from $18 to $43 per piece - based on three factors:

Supplier location: Chinese manufacturers offer 20-30% lower costs than European brands

Material quality: 30% of "S75" grade rods fail ISO 14624 tests in Bogota labs

Import policies: Colombia's new 12% tax rebate for mining equipment (Law 2277) cuts final costs
