Second Hand Rock Drill Price in Israel 2024: Cost List, Wholesale Deals & Buying Tips

Need reliable second-hand rock drills in Israel but worried about high costs? You're not alone. Over 65% of construction and mining companies in Israel now prioritize pre-owned equipment to cut upfront expenses. This guide reveals price per piece ranges, quotation strategies, and trusted suppliers to help you buy smarter.

Why Second-Hand Rock Drills Dominate Israel's Market

Israel's construction sector grew by 8.3% in 2023 (Central Bureau of Statistics), pushing demand for affordable heavy machinery. New rock drills cost $12,000-$25,000, while used rock drill prices in Israel start at $5,500 for functional units - a 55% saving. A Tel Aviv tunneling firm saved $18,000 last year by purchasing three refurbished Atlas Copco drills through a Haifa-based dealer.

Key Factors Impacting Prices

Brand: Sandvik/Atlas Copco units cost 20% more than Chinese models

Hours Used: Drills under 1,500 hours sell 30% faster

Local Inventory: 80% of Israeli stock comes from EU/Gulf liquidations
